Helmshore Mills Textile Museum

Nestling in the quiet village of Helmshore, in the stunning Rossendale Valley, two original textile mills - Higher Mill and Whitaker's Mills - form the museum. Immerse yourselves in the sights, sounds and smells of mill life. Witness original machinery at work, including the newly restored waterwheel, and discover how raw wool and cotton were transformed into yarn. Unravel stories of inspirational inventors and their magnificent machines. During your visit relax in our Taste Lancashire accredited cafe. Seasonal opening.
